Volunteer Commitment Policy

USC Law’s Mentoring Program underwrites the cost of background checks for participating law student volunteers. Because this cost is substantial, law students who agree to participate in the mentoring program must promise to attend all six sessions (does not include end-of-year celebration because date is currently pending). If you fail to substantially participate in the program, defined as participation in all 6 sessions, you will be required to reimburse the program the cost of your background check. If an exigent circumstance arises, which results in your inability to participate in one session, you must contact a member of the Program’s Executive Board as soon as possible to explain your circumstance and request a waiver. Waivers may be granted on a case by case basis and will only be provided for one of the six sessions.

By signing and dating this form, you indicate that you fully understand and agree to abide by the Volunteer Commitment Policy.
