Commitment to Diversity and Equity

In this month’s newsletter, it was mentioned that specific actions were being developed to help our community collectively to build a more diverse, inclusive and equitable culture within and around us. On June 15, Sharon Green Orr released a letter to the Department of Internal Medicine.

As of Monday, June 29, all employees are required to consult with the Department of Internal Medicine.

COVID-19 Updates

Operations has begun its four-year plan to move to the new facility.

The university is pursing a comprehensive strategy to control the spread of COVID-19.

A new COVID-19 testing tool, Palmetto Profiles, is now available.

Ultrasound stethoscope and EKG, all tied together with artificial intelligence.

A new cardiothoracic assessment tool, which was pioneered at the School of Medicine, has been released.

New research networking tool, Palmetto Profiles, now live.

Eligible for current students in August, and the class will matriculate in May 2021.

In June, the nurse anesthesia program received final approval to shift to a Doctor of Nurse Anesthesia Program.

Morris Blachman, Ph.D. Orr has been a faculty member in the School of Medicine since 2008.

Orr named assistant dean of continuous professional development and strategic affairs.

New research networking tool, Palmetto Profiles, now live.

Read more.

Getting Your Scholarships in 2020

Congratulations

New research networking tool, Palmetto Profiles, now live.

Eligible for current students in August, and the class will matriculate in May 2021.

In June, the nurse anesthesia program received final approval to shift to a Doctor of Nurse Anesthesia Program.

Morris Blachman, Ph.D. Orr has been a faculty member in the School of Medicine since 2008.

Orr named assistant dean of continuous professional development and strategic affairs.

New research networking tool, Palmetto Profiles, now live.

Read more.

Getting Your Scholarships in 2020

Congratulations

New research networking tool, Palmetto Profiles, now live.

Eligible for current students in August, and the class will matriculate in May 2021.

In June, the nurse anesthesia program received final approval to shift to a Doctor of Nurse Anesthesia Program.

Morris Blachman, Ph.D. Orr has been a faculty member in the School of Medicine since 2008.

Orr named assistant dean of continuous professional development and strategic affairs.

New research networking tool, Palmetto Profiles, now live.

Read more.

Getting Your Scholarships in 2020

Congratulations