Our Fall Fest Student Conference is a one-stop!

- Learn how to get your resume to the top of the pile
- Get tips on acing that interview
- Hear from experts about making the best first impression
- Get the inside scoop on the CPA Exam
- Learn how to network and be noticed (in a good way)
- Hear what’s in store for the future of the profession
- Gain essential tools for career success

In addition to great networking and educational sessions, students are invited to attend the Student Recognition Luncheon and are encouraged to visit our exhibit hall for a chance to win giveaway items and walk away with conference merch.

Students must be members of SCACPA to attend. Register today by completing the form on the back of this sheet and returning it to communications@scacpa.org or register online at www.scacpa.org/Fall-Fest/

Why SCACPA means success:
SCACPA gives you connections that could lead to internships or full-time jobs after graduation. It also offers events that will help you socially and professionally in the world of CPAs. Plus, for students, membership is FREE.

SCACPA Student Membership opens up the world of accounting like no other organization in the state, and we are here for you every step of the way. While you are earning your degree, you have access to scholarship opportunities. We gave accounting students over $43,000 in 2017 alone!

Maybe you aren’t sure what field you want to enter as a post-grad – our network of over 3,000 South Carolina CPAs can give you advice (and maybe a job offer, too) on what type of accounting role might fit you best. Jump-start on building your professional network by volunteering with your local Chapter or attending Chapter social events!

Student Application

Student membership in SCACPA is complimentary. By becoming a member, you are automatically made a member of the American Institute of CPAs (AICPA). You will also join one of eight local SCACPA Chapters. Chapter membership will allow you to attend select networking and educational events.

Grow your network and learn from every opportunity presented to you. It will put you in a position where your career growth knows no limits. SCACPA Student Membership gives you access to every piece of the formula, all you have to do is put it together.

Connect with employers looking for fresh talent that can navigate an office environment while excelling in a challenging position. It’s hard to learn those skills without field experience. Start making connections with SCACPA Members who can open up internship opportunities, and start your career now!

Learn from knowledgable SCACPA Members about their journeys; you might be surprised to hear paths similar to yours. An accounting degree is just the beginning of your journey. We encourage you to pursue your CPA not only for the greater good of the profession, but for your long-term career growth.
