WHY CHOOSE THE MOORE SCHOOL?

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

The Darla Moore School of Business is known worldwide as a leading center for international business education and a thriving site for academic excellence across several disciplines.

Undergraduate students at the Moore School receive a comprehensive education in core business competencies including business analytics, develop functional expertise through their major course coursework and are prepared for success in today's fast-paced, information-driven, global economy. Classes are taught by world-renowned faculty, many of whom are top researchers in their respective fields.

REAL-WORLD EXPERIENCE

From corporate consulting projects with Fortune 500 companies to internships and opportunities to study abroad in more than 30 countries, Moore School students benefit from enriching real-world experiences that enhance their skills outside the classroom and improve their marketability to future employers.

OUTSTANDING JOB PLACEMENT

Moore School students benefit from excellent job placement rates. The 2021 undergraduate class had an overall average salary at $57,720, with three of nine majors exceeding $60,000. What's more, all undergraduates have access to the school's in-house Office of Career Management, which provides career coaching and professional development workshops on skills such as resume development, interviewing, job search planning, networking and lifelong career planning.

A GLOBAL NETWORK

Upon graduation, Moore School students join an international network of business leaders working at national and global companies around the world. Today, the 50,000+ Moore School alumni network spans 96 countries on six continents.
