A WORLD OF OPPORTUNITY
CAROLINE CROWDER
(’21 MIB) Global Alliances Director, eduCLaaS

“I chose the Master of International Business because of the Moore School’s reputation and because of Darla Moore. It was important that I had that female executive to look up to and aspire to be. Secondly, the reputation of the international business programs at the Moore School is unmatched in the country. The connections you make here and the professors – their talent and research – is unparalleled. The Moore School has taught me that the possibilities in life and in your career are truly endless.”

DAVIDE CAMPI
(’20 MIB) Account Development Executive, MuleSoft

“Thanks to the double-degree program offered by UofSC, I have been able to acquire experiences from all over the world, a wide variety of different perspectives and the master’s degree that I was missing to build a true global mindset. The program has helped me learn different ways of doing business, and my responsibility will be to link them together in order to find a new way that integrates coherently the best that each can offer and that fits the international context.”

CARLOS CUETO
(’18 MIB) Small Medium Business and Channels Strategy Manager, UPS

“I chose MIB because the curriculum interconnected a strong foundation of economics, politics and culture that would develop the skillset I needed to lead across borders. It’s incredibly valuable to have a transnational mindset and not be limited by barriers that might limit other business leaders. As my career progresses, I hope to serve as a mentor for the younger generation of UPS. I encourage them, and everyone in the MIB program, to leverage every chance they get to network, as it’s fundamental to success.”

HALLE HUGHES
(’17 MIB) Western Europe Change Manager, Microsoft

“There were people in my [Moore School] program from all over the world as well as people who didn’t major in business for their bachelor’s degree. This [understanding of diversity] was strengthened even more at Aalto University where I was working with students who had design and technical backgrounds in the international design business management program. The MIB program taught me empathy and how to constantly challenge the current view or way of working, two essential attitudes that I use in my daily work.”
