We are excited to announce that we will continue our annual in-person symposium this coming Spring on March 25, 2022. More information on this event will be available soon. Check out our symposium page for updates and information on previous symposia.
Dr. Elizabeth Adams is our newest Nutrition Consortium Faculty Affiliate! Dr. Adams' research includes the promotion of healthful dietary patterns to prevent pediatric obesity and reduce health inequities. Her work investigates parenting and family-based influences on behaviors related to child obesity risk (e.g., nutrition, sleep patterns), in order to prevent the intergenerational transmission of obesity. She also conducts investigations on federal nutrition policies (e.g., National School Lunch Program) to ensure children from all income levels have access to healthful nutrition for chronic disease prevention. Welcome Dr. Adams!
The Student Nutrition Group hosted their welcome back event this past month! The organization has some very exciting plans for the upcoming semester. If you would like to learn more please email sosng@mailbox.sc.edu, and sign up to join the group on Garnet Gate.
