Nutrition Conferences Happening this Fall
Each fall, the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics sponsors the world’s largest meeting of food and nutrition experts — more than 10,000 registered dietitian nutritionists, nutrition science researchers, policy makers, health-care providers and industry leaders attend the annual meeting — and address key issues affecting the health of all Americans. The Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo will take place virtually October 17-20. Find more information here.

American Public Health Association 2020, APHA's first-ever Virtual Annual Meeting and Expo will take place October 24-28. This year's meeting will be a mix of live and on-demand sessions that focus on the 2020 theme, "Creating the Healthiest Nation: Preventing Violence", the COVID-19 pandemic and many other areas of public health. In addition, they've created a Virtual Public Health Expo with hundreds of public health organizations from across the nation. This event will be full of inspiration, education and networking opportunities. Find more information here.
The Micronutrient Forum provides a common ground and collaborative space for professionals, organizations and stakeholders who share an interest in reducing micronutrient malnutrition. The Micronutrient Forum 5th Global Conference will take place virtually November 9 to 13, 2020. Find more information here.

We will provide more information and send notification of dates and times of affiliate presentations as they become available for these upcoming events. Please let us know if you are presenting at any of the upcoming conferences or if there are any other nutrition-related conferences we should be promoting.

Other Important Updates & Events
Dr. Leila Larson is our newest Nutrition Consortium Faculty Affiliate! Dr. Larson's interests lie in community nutrition and human development throughout the lifespan. She is interested in maternal and child nutrition, the consequences of malnutrition, and interventions to improve early life health outcomes in resource limited settings. Welcome Dr. Larson!

The Student Nutrition Group is hosting an online vegan cooking class with Marty Davey, RD and Nutrition Interventionist for the NEW Soul Study, September 27, 2020 at 3PM. The menu for the cooking demonstration will include:
- Insta’ party bean dip
- Fat free tortilla chips
- Lentil sloppy joes over potatoes
- Nutty cocoa nibbles.

Register by filling out the form below and they will send you a list of ingredients in case you want to join in on the cooking! If you want to just come and take notes, that’s fine too!
