Lighthouse for Life is a faith based local non-profit fighting human trafficking in SC. One of the ways we do this is through a long-term restoration program at our safe house, Karis Home. The program is designed for females ages 12-21 and can house 5 residents at a time. The program is comprehensive to their care and addresses their educational, physical, psychological, social and spiritual needs.

We are currently looking for someone with a social worker’s degree that would be interested in joining our staff as the Resident Care Coordinator. This full time position would be responsible for evaluating, assessing, and the provision of all essential tasks for survivors of sex trafficking in the Karis Home residential program, working to empower individuals and promote autonomy. The qualifications are as follows:

- Master’s or Doctorate degree in social work or other related areas of study and one year of experience in the management or supervision of child care personnel, a child care program and/or a closely related field; or a Bachelor’s degree and three years of experience in the management or supervision of child care personnel, a child care program or closely related field
- Must be a female
- Agree with Lighthouse for Life’s Statement of Faith and Code of Conduct and Core Values
- Be a citizen, national, or lawful permanent resident alien of the United States
- Satisfy a criminal background check, sex offender check, FBI fingerprint check and drug test.
- Have drivers record from the past 3 years containing no more than two recorded vehicular accidents where the applicant is at fault, or no more than 8 current violation points per DSS requirement.
- Have a working knowledge of how to use Microsoft Office programs

If interested in a more complete job description please contact our Karis Home Program Director, Elizabeth Rummel, at elizabeth@lighthouseforlife.org.

We are also looking for someone with a social worker background to volunteer alongside our Survivor Care Coordinator as she seeks to support adult survivors that reach out to us for various services. If you are interested in learning more about this volunteer position please contact our COO, Lisa Kejr, at lisa@lighthouseforlife.org for more information
